Behind The Build

PAN PACIFIC LONDON

London is one of the busiest cities in the world, and while there's something uniquely invigorating about the hustle and bustle of this capital city, a touch of tranquillity is always a welcome reprieve. This is where Pan Pacific London steps in to save the day. The hotel seamlessly blends British elegance with Singaporean sensibilities, drawing inspiration from the serene ambience of woodlands and rainforests.

The calm atmosphere and comforting colour palette, complemented by thoughtful details such as artwork infused with Asian influences, luxury amenities, and an in-room curated reads ensure that visitors feel at home from the moment they arrive.

The 144-year-old Devonshire House building, originally the headquarters of the Religious Society of Friends after leasing it from the Cavendish family, serves as the backdrop for this contemporary oasis. Though the initial structure was expanded and eventually demolished after 1925, original features still grace the property. An authentic Victorian shopfront was meticulously removed and refurbished, preserving the craftsmanship for future generations to appreciate. This commitment to heritage permeates the hotel; meeting areas are named after renowned markets in London such as Spitalfields and Brick Lane as well as coaching inns from the mid-1400s, paying homage to the city's rich history.

While the conscious mind may appreciate an elegant hotel with attentive staff and sophisticated surroundings, the subconscious craves a deeper sensory experience.

Crafted exclusively for Pan Pacific London by a team of experts, a scent harmoniously blending classic Southeast Asian essences such as orange, lemon, bergamot, rose, and green tea floats through the public spaces, transporting guests to a state of tranquillity during their stay at the hotel.

Silverleaf Devonshire House

Designed by Tom Dixon, Silverleaf bar offers an innovative menu developed by our talented team who forage for ingredients and craft each cocktail in our lab. Our bar promises an unparalleled drinking experience, drawing inspiration from design, art and naturalism. Additionally, the hidden Alba bar provides an elegant setting for tastings and masterclasses.

REJUVENATE

SENSORY Wellbeing Fourth Floor

For a spot of TLC or a body MOT, look no further than our holistic wellness floor. From the 18.5-metre heated infinity pool and steam rooms to the TechnoBody® Gym and spa treatments blending the theories of Western science with centuries-old Asian traditions, there is something to suit every guest. We also offer Bonpoint Beauty experiences designed for children aged 6-16 years, giving them the chance to dip their toes into the world of wellness.

Perfectly Suited

We are proud to introduce 'Perfectly Suited', our newly designed suite collection at Pan Pacific London by Singapore-based architects, FDAT. Each suite is meticulously designed to cater to distinct guest personalities, while maintaining the elegance and comfort that defines our hotel.

Bishopsgate Suite: Bright, Lively, and Family-Centric

With its 'Sunny Singapore' theme, this suite is a haven for families, embodying the vibrant spirit of Singapore. The character of the room comes alive with bright, vibrant colours and playful touches to create a welcoming, warm environment that evokes the lush landscapes and vibrancy of Singapore's tropical climate. Inspired by the botanical beauty of the Singapore Botanic Gardens, floral motifs are delicately woven into the fabric of the suite design, from wallpapers to artwork, paying homage to nature's vibrancy.

A personalised feature in the Bishopsgate suites is their playful use of space, with a mini tepee set up on request, giving children their own world to explore. This whimsical element not only adds excitement for our youngest guests but also reinforces the suite's family-friendly approach. The interconnecting rooms provide both privacy and togetherness, ensuring that every member of the family feels comfortable and at home.

Every inch of the Bishopsgate Suite speaks to the importance of offering a space where family memories can be made, creating an unforgettable getaway to add to the memory album.

Walbrook Suite: For Elegant and Intimate Celebrations

For those celebrating life's special moments, the Walbrook Suite is designed with elegance and opulence in mind. The 'Midnight Garden' design is characterised by its deep, moody tones and rich textures, perfect for intimate and luxurious celebrations.

The suite's colour palette is a symphony of deep blues, rich greens and charcoal greys that mimic the luxurious, dusky atmosphere of a Singaporean garden at night. The stunning bespoke wallpaper art is a focal point and features intricate botanical artwork that evolves the theme further, showing extinct Singaporean flora and fauna referenced in a way that feels both opulent and serene.

Guests of the Walbrook Suites are greeted with thoughtful details such as bespoke monogrammed pillowcases, ensuring that every element of the stay feels uniquely personal. A bottle of chilled champagne or non-alcoholic sparkling wine complements a stay, perfect for toasting to milestones or simply enjoying a special evening together in luxurious surrounds.

Devonshire Suite: Sleek, Functional, and Designed for Business

The Devonshire Suite marries luxury and practicality with a design that appeals to the sophisticated business traveller. With a focus on functionality, the suite offers comfort and an environment that promotes productivity.

Upon arrival, Devonshire Suite guests can take advantage of our VIP meet and greet service on the Elizabeth line from Liverpool Street Station. Every aspect of the suite is designed to cater to the modern professional such as the ergonomically designed desk thoughtfully positioned to take full advantage of natural light, with sweeping views of the London skyline.

For those seeking to recharge after work, the Suite boasts in-room fitness equipment upon request. Whether you prefer a yoga mat for a peaceful post-work stretch or a set of free weights, we cater to your personal wellness routine.

The deep, dark hues, soft furnishings and added personal touches create a suite that exudes a calm, professional atmosphere and is the perfect place to seamlessly balance work and relaxation.

With this newly-designed suite collection, Pan Pacific London offers an extraordinary experience, thoughtfully crafted for families, celebratory stays, and business travellers alike – truly Perfectly Suited for any occasion.

HIDDEN GEM SPOTLIGHT

Sky Garden

Hidden high above the City on the 34th - 37th floors of the iconic 20 Fenchurch Street, more fondly known as the 'Walkie Talkie', Sky Garden offers an enchanting escape from the bustle below. As London's highest public garden, this vibrant social space invites visitors to immerse themselves in a lush, verdant oasis, with free access upon prior booking. The 350-degree views provide an unparalleled perspective of the city's majestic skyline.

Step into the serene and tropical ambiance of Sky Garden's exquisitely landscaped gardens, where Mediterranean and South African flora thrive 155-metres high above the urban landscape. Three distinctive terraces are each thoughtfully designed to evoke different landscapes and habitats, creating a wonderfully immersive experience. Vibrant blooms like the striking Bird of Paradise and Red Hot Poker add splashes of colour, while tranquil water features provide a serene soundtrack.

From the main viewing deck, the city unfolds in a breathtaking tableau of iconic architecture and beloved historical landmarks. Floor-to-ceiling glass windows ensure uninterrupted views, while the open-air terrace offers a dramatic vantage, perfect for admiring the grandeur of St. Paul's Cathedral and Tower Bridge or the sleek silhouettes of The Shard or The Gherkin.

Those seeking a moment of mindfulness can elevate their Sky Garden visit by starting their day with early morning yoga surrounded by the beauty of the garden and the sweeping cityscape beyond. Afterwards, yogis can enjoy a freshly brewed coffee and a selection of breakfast pastries, making for an idyllic morning ritual.

Sky Garden also boasts five fantastic restaurants and bars, each with a distinct offering. Whether indulging in classic Italian fare at Larch, savouring a celebration of the best of British cuisine at Darwin Brasserie, or experiencing contemporary British fine-dining at Fenchurch, there's something for every occasion. For cocktails with one of the best views of the capital, start your evening at one of Sky Garden's two cocktail bars, Sky Pod and City Garden.

From sunrise yoga classes to pre-dinner cocktails as the city lights start to twinkle at sunset, Sky Garden is the ultimate hidden gem that captivates both tourists and Londoners alike – whether they're falling in love with the city for the first time or rediscovering its magic.

FAMILY FUN

For our muggle guests, a magical adventure into the wizarding world awaits you just around the corner from the hotel. The Tour for Muggles is a spellbinding walking tour that offers a portkey into the world of Harry Potter. So gather your little witches and wizards, dust off your broomsticks, and prepare to discover London in a new and enchanting way.

Conveniently situated within easy walking distance of Pan Pacific London – with no Disapparition required – the Tour for Muggles invites you and your little muggles on a journey through London that blends historical intrigue with fantastical elements from J.K. Rowling's much-loved series. The tour's passionate guides, all experts in the art of storytelling, bring the wizarding world to life to enchant aspiring witches and wizards of every age.

Your adventure begins at Leadenhall Market, a place brimming with magical charm and reminiscent of the bustling streets of Diagon Alley. This iconic location, home to the hidden magic of the Leaky Cauldron, is where Harry first stepped into the wizarding world. Muggles can follow in Harry's footsteps and explore the secret entrances and hidden passages that bring Gringotts Wizarding Bank to life, where goblins guard the vaults and dragons keep a watchful eye on the treasures within.

As you continue, you will cross the iconic Millennium Bridge, which was famously attacked and destroyed by Death Eaters in "Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince". Just beyond, marvel at the grandeur of St. Paul's Cathedral, whose soaring architecture inspired the Ravenclaw Tower and the mystical spiral staircase leading to Professor Trelawney's Divination classroom.

Further along your journey, you'll find yourself at the entrance to the Ministry of Magic, cleverly disguised to blend in with the muggle world.

With each step and spell, the line between the muggle world and the magical realm blurs, making this journey an unforgettable experience for all – a perfect addition to your stay at Pan Pacific London, where every moment can be filled with magic.

DAY TRIPPING

DISCOVER BATH

With its enchanting Georgian streets and historic charm, Bath becomes a picture-perfect escape during the autumn and winter months. Just over an hour from Paddington Station, it's the perfect place for a seasonal day trip, whether you're drawn by the city's festive spirit, cosy traditions, nearby fairy-tale villages or tranquil countryside walks.

As the city dons its autumnal hues, Bath invites you to promenade along its beautiful Georgian streets, before wandering through the city's scenic parks and gardens. The surrounding countryside offers the perfect opportunity for crisp, invigorating walks, including the National Trust's Bath Skyline Walk which boasts panoramic views over the city.

A trip to the picturesque nearby village of Castle Combe is a must. Known for its quintessential English charm, Castle Combe is often hailed as one of England's most beautiful villages. Taking you back in time with its honey-coloured cottages, winding streets, medieval buildings and iconic stone bridge, Castle Combe provides idyllic visit that is straight from the pages of a storybook.

Embrace Bath's cosy charm and enjoy warming drinks at Society Café or The Bath Bun. Cosy up by crackling fires and savour hearty pub fare at The Raven or The Old Green Tree, or visit Sally Lunn's, the city's oldest house and the birth place of the famous Bath bun.

As winter approaches, Bath transforms into a wintery wonderland. Running from late November to mid-December, the Bath Christmas Market is a seasonal highlight and features picturesque stalls selling gifts, artisan crafts, and festive fare. The market is set against a backdrop of iconic landmarks such as Bath Abbey and the Roman Baths, illuminated by twinkling Christmas lights. And for a magical winter experience, head to Bath on Ice at Royal Victoria Park and soak up the festive ambiance as you glide over the ice.

No winter visit to Bath would be complete without experiencing the city's eponymous Roman Baths, which offer a captivating look into the city's ancient history. Visitors can explore the well-preserved complex dating back over 2,000 years and immerse themselves in Roman life. Nearby Thermae Bath Spa provides the opportunity to bathe like the Romans in naturally warm, mineral-rich waters in the open-air rooftop pool, with spectacular views of the city's skyline.

Whether you're soaking up the history at the ancient Roman Baths, bathing in the twinkle of the Christmas lights, exploring charming nearby villages, or exploring the Georgian streets, Bath is a standout destination in autumn and winter.

A NEIGHBOURHOOD GUIDE TO COVENT GARDEN

No trip to London is complete without a visit to Covent Garden, just 20 minutes from the hotel by tube. Anchored by the magnificent 17th-century Apple Market, this quintessential London destination is tailor-made for autumn and winter visits.

At the heart of Covent Garden, the pedestrianised Piazza and Market Building buzz with shopping activity, featuring iconic brands like Tom Ford, Mulberry, and Tiffany & Co, plus boutiques and antique stalls, all ideal for holiday shopping. Just a short walk away, Neal's Yard's colourful courtyard boasts independent shops and cosy cafes and nearby Seven Dials, known for its historic star-like layout, blends boutiques and global brands with a lively array of cafes and eateries. Don't miss Seven Dials Market, which offers a global culinary tour with street food vendors and highlights like The Cheese Bar's innovative cheese conveyor belt.

Culture enthusiasts will find a haven in Covent Garden. The Royal Opera House, with its stunning architecture and acclaimed performances, is a must-visit for opera and ballet aficionados. The surrounding West End theatres continue this cultural heritage, hosting a range of shows from timeless classics to cutting-edge contemporary productions.

Whether you're seeking a pre-theatre bite, an elegant date night, or a sophisticated cocktail, Covent Garden offers an abundance of options to suit every occasion.

Clos Maggiore, often hailed as London's most romantic restaurant, enchants diners with its refined Provençal and Basque dishes, served under a canopy of blossoms and fairy lights. For a taste of tradition, Rules - London's oldest restaurant established in 1798 - offers classic British fare in a Georgian setting. For a more casual affair, The Crusting Pipe provides a cosy atmosphere and impromptu live performances. To finish your evening, The American Bar at The Savoy is renowned for its expertly crafted cocktails and elegant ambiance.

During the festive season, Covent Garden truly shines. The Apple Market is adorned with dazzling giant bells and baubles, while the West Piazza features a beautifully illuminated 60-foot UK-grown Christmas tree. Those hoping for a white Christmas won't be disappointed, as hourly flurries of snow dust the piazza. Stroll through the Wonder Wood on James Street, warm up with mulled wine from pop-up stations, and capture festive moments with Santa's historic sleigh, a reconditioned 1884 carriage.

BLENDING WESTERN TECHNIQUES & SOUTHEAST ASIAN FLAVOURS

STRAITS KITCHEN

We are delighted to have unveiled our vibrant new à la carte menu at Straits Kitchen - crafted by our talented Executive Chef, Adam Bateman. This menu is a true celebration of the fusion of Southeast Asian flavours and impeccably sourced British ingredients. These elements are brought together beautifully using modern Western cooking techniques, resulting in elevated and elegant plates

Guests can explore an exquisite menu divided into categories such as Small & Raw, Dumplings & Skewers, Larger Plates, and Vegetable, Rice & Noodles. And for those who love to experience a taste of everything, our "Experience Menu" offers a wonderful and comprehensive selection of chef's signature dishes, designed to be shared and enjoyed by the whole table.

Standout dishes celebrating quality produce include Scottish Salmon served with sweet miso, wasabi and green peas; rich Hereford Beef Short Rib with miso polenta, horseradish and sweet soy; and North Atlantic cod with an indulgent Laska-style sauce.

Jimmy Butler's Bakso Meatballs are a testament to the hotel's commitment to quality produce. Executive Chef Adam has maintained a close relationship with the Suffolk-based family-run butcher for over 20 years and heroes their exceptional free-range pork with a char siu glaze and rich Rendang sauce.

For the ultimate showstopper, don't miss the Dry-Aged Gressingham Duck, prepared with Western techniques and served with traditional Peking-style pancakes - a perfect reflection of the fusion of the new menu.

To experience the new menu, make a reservation online or with one of our wonderful team during your stay.

IN CONVERSATION WITH Jo Malone

Renowned for her ability to encapsulate emotions and memories in a bottle, Jo Malone is synonymous with timeless elegance and fragrance innovation. Her remarkable journey began in facials and skincare, where her natural talent for scent led her to experiment with adding fragrance to skincare. After founding her eponymous fragrance brand, Jo Malone, in 1994, she swiftly gained acclaim for her distinctive and sophisticated scents, establishing herself as a leading figure in the fragrance industry.

The success of Jo Malone led to its acquisition by Estée Lauder in 1999. Following a brief hiatus, Jo launched Jo Loves, a new venture that allowed her to delve deeper into her olfactory creativity. Jo Loves quickly became known for its unique and evocative fragrances, showcasing Jo's signature approach to scent and affirming her innate talent and enduring passion.

In this conversation, Jo shares the inspirations that have shaped her career, the role of synaesthesia in her creative process, and her perspective on the evolving nature of luxury. As Jo Loves embarks on an exclusive partnership with Pan Pacific Hotels Group, Jo introduces the luxury in-room amenities and hotel scent involved in this collaboration – demonstrating once again her exceptional ability to intertwine emotion, memory and fragrance into a truly unforgettable experience.

What first inspired you to get into creating fragrances?

I've always had a heightened sense of smell and although my journey began in facials and skincare, my passion for fragrance emerged early on. I was always told I had a natural ability and I started by blending body lotions with scents, which ignited my lifelong love for fragrance.

Tell us about how synaesthesia plays a part in your creative process

My imagination allows me to engage with all five senses in an immersive way. Where most people see colour, I can also smell that colour; for example, a blue sky smells like salt and cool flowers; when I look at a beautiful Cypress tree, I can smell green foliage and raindrops – this is why I'm known as a scent maverick.

Where does your inspiration come from?

Just life, every day I dedicate a couple of hours to simply sitting, thinking, and letting my imagination roam freely. I'm a passionate storyteller, constantly seeking inspiration in the world around me. One of my favourite spots is by the old creek in Dubai, where I sit under the trees watching the world pass by while jotting down thoughts in my notebook.

What advice do you have for aspiring entrepreneurs?

It's essential to create a story that draws people into your brand and infuses it with character and personality. It's not just about the product or its visual appeal – it's about so much more. People often make a purchase not based on what they want, but on who they want to become. This requires thinking about luxury in a new dimension. Luxury is constantly evolving and to succeed, you must evolve with it. When we look at great and enduring brands, we see a clear anchor of strong ethos and a compelling story.

No one is responsible for your dreams – they are yours alone. If you truly desire something, seize it and make it happen.

Never forget about the bank account of creativity that belongs solely to you. Invest in it wisely, for it is a resource that will stay with you forever.

Why have you chosen Pan Pacific?

At Jo Loves, we seek partners who share our values and a sense of family, both collaborating to bring that kind of identity and creativity into our work. I value those who are open to exploring how our work can integrate with other sensory aspects of the brand.

Can you describe the fragrance?

Imagine stepping into a vibrant Southeast Asian garden where the air is filled with the scent of ripe mangos and the spicy warmth of black pepper. This fragrance is a beautiful blend of fruity, spicy, floral, and woody notes, creating a scent that is both invigorating and fresh.

What was your inspiration for Mango Thai Lime?

Years ago, I attended a wedding in Southeast Asia where two lovely ladies prepared daily meals for us in our villa. My favourite moment of the day was when they would bring me a plate of sliced mango on lime leaves, finished with a sprinkle of shaved lime. The entire experience – the culture, the people, the food, was so wonderful that I was inspired to recreate this memory and Mango Thai Lime was born.

What feeling do you want guests to have when using Mango Thai Lime?

Mango Thai Lime embodies the essence of joy, laughter and sunshine, capturing the spirit of living in the moment. It's a fragrance that transports you back to the delightful experience of staying at the hotel, evoking the laughter and warmth of those wonderful memories.

Jo Malone

SCENT-SATIONAL DESSERT

INSPIRED BY PAN PACIFIC LONDON'S SIGNATURE
JO LOVES SCENT, MANGO THAI LIME

We are delighted to announce the exclusive partnership of the Pan Pacific Hotels Group with Jo Loves, the renowned fragrance brand founded by the iconic Jo Malone.

This exciting collaboration is Jo Loves' first hotel group contract supplying in-bathroom guest amenities and will reach 23 Pan Pacific Hotels Group properties globally and over 6,000 rooms. The collaboration combines Jo's renowned talent for evocative scent creation with Pan Pacific's dedication to creating unforgettable experiences, resulting in a scent that evokes the memories of the comfortable luxury and personal touches that guests experience during their stay at Pan Pacific London.

The signature scent that is at the heart of the partnership is the Jo Loves Mango Thai Lime. The vibrant fragrance bursts with tropical freshness, with bright notes of mango and lime, complemented by hints of black pepper, mint, freesia, white thyme, and vetiver.

The scent will be diffused throughout Pan Pacific London and enjoyed by guests as luxury in-room amenities, creating an inviting atmosphere where luxury and comfort blend seamlessly, leaving a lasting impression on all who visit.

To celebrate the partnership, Pan Pacific London's newly appointed Head Pastry Chef, Beth Dove, and her talented team have created a dessert that reflects the essence of the Mango Thai Lime fragrance. Introducing the Tropical Tango Cheesecake, an exquisite dessert that harmonises the fragrance notes into a delicious and beautifully presented dessert.

The Tropical Tango Cheesecake features a biscoff base, paired with a creamy baked lemon cheesecake, delivering a zesty citrus tang. Topped with a lime foam, it's complemented by a refreshing mango mint salad and a hint of spice from mango black pepper gel. The dessert is finished with gula melaka ice cream, offering sweet, smoky notes. Each element mirrors the layers of the fragrance, creating a dessert that not only tantalises the taste buds but also enhances the sensory experience of the Mango Thai Lime scent.

The dessert offers guests the chance to indulge in a unique culinary experience that seamlessly combines taste and smell. This exciting collaboration with Jo Loves underscores the power of scent to transform an experience, making each stay at Pan Pacific London truly unforgettable.

TEXTURE IS EVERYTHING

INTRODUCING SILVERLEAF'S
NEW MENU

Silverleaf, the hotel's destination cocktail bar, are delighted to unveil their latest menu entitled 'Texture Is Everything'. This new collection features 13 unique cocktails that explore the interplay between texture, mixology and design, offering guests an immersive sensory experience. The menu itself is a work of art, crafted on textured embossed paper with abstract watercolour designs by London-based artist Ladina Brunner, evoking the essence of each taste sensation.

Building on the success of their previous 'Building Blocks' menu, featuring microscopic cocktail images by photographer Karl Gaff, the Silverleaf team is now focusing on textural design to reflect their signature naturalistic and minimalist style. The team have developed a collection of drinks categorised into six distinct mouthfeels: Delicate, Effervescent, Tannic, Smooth, Creamy, and Rich along with their Golden Serve and Signatures. The cocktails are elevated creatively using in-house paint, oil and gel garnishes.

The 'Tannic' section draws inspiration from woody and dry flavours, showcased by the 'Plum Oudh' cocktail. This Manhattan variation features Glenfiddich 15, Vermouth, Plum and Oudh. The flavour profile offers smokey notes that are complemented by the gentle sweetness from the spiced plum cordial. The drink is garnished with a spritz of an in-house edible perfume made from Oudh, Amber and Labdanum. The textural presentation of this section is a grainy tree bark-like embossing that reflects the woody characteristics of the drinks.

The 'Smooth' section presents the 'Quince Beeswax' which combines Teeling Small Batch Irish Whiskey, Zubrowka Vodka, Capreolus Quince Eau De Vie, Martini Ambrato, Chamomile Cordial and Beeswax. This delightful whiskey-based cocktail is balanced with sweet and floral flavours, and the texture is embossed to resemble smooth pebbles.

The 'Effervescent' section highlights the 'Melon Fig Leaf' a refreshing tropical highball made with Grey Goose, Cantaloupe Melon, Fig Leaf and Fino Sherry garnished with Salty Fingers, a flavourful sea vegetable. The rich melon profile is balanced by an in-house fig leaf cordial, enhancing the vodka for a lasting sweet finish. This section is adorned with delicate dotted droplets that mimic the appearance of champagne bubble.

The new collection expertly balances innovation with sophistication to create a complete sensory experience with each cocktail.

WELLBEING

SKY HIGH RECOVERY – THE FLIGHT MODE TREATMENT

Travelling across time zones can disrupt your body's natural circadian rhythm, leaving you feeling disoriented, fatigued and out of sync. At Pan Pacific London, we understand the challenges of jet lag and are here to help you recover swiftly and effectively with our exclusive Flight Mode Recovery treatment, meticulously designed to address and alleviate jet lag symptoms.

Tips for Preventing Jet Lag Before You Arrive:

- Gradually shift your sleep schedule to match your destination's time zone a few days before departure.
- Opt for flights that align with your destination's time zone.
- Drink plenty of water before, during, and after your flight and avoid alcohol.
- Expose yourself to sunlight as soon as you arrive as natural light is crucial for resetting your internal clock.

Once you've landed, our Flight Mode Recovery treatment ensures you can bounce back quickly so you are able to make the most of your stay.

Water Muscle Activation (10 minutes)

Take a swim in our infinity pool to stimulate blood circulation and warm up your muscles, promoting better oxygen flow, flush out toxins and reduce the stiffness that often accompanies long flights.

Aqua Bike Recovery Workout (45 minutes)

Engage in this low-impact, water-based exercise that offers 12 times the resistance of air. This enhances cardiovascular endurance and muscle strength while protecting your joints, counteracting the fatigue and lethargy experienced after a long flight.

Steam Room Relaxation with Aromatherapy Oil

Relax sore muscles, reduce stress, and enhance overall relaxation in our steam rooms, enhanced with calming aromatherapy oils to promote a sense of holistic wellbeing and to mitigate mental and physical stress.

Lymphatic Drainage Massage (60 minutes)

Specialised massage using Naturalia Sintesi mud and cream to stimulate lymphatic flow and reduce the swelling and water retention exacerbated by long flights.

Bespoke Energy Booster Nutritional Meal

Replenish your energy levels with a curated meal designed to provide the nutrients your body needs to recover from travel fatigue.

Aromatherapy Self-Care Bath Oil

Conclude your treatment with soothing bath oils that enhance relaxation and ease remaining tension with aromatherapy.

Take your jet lag recovery to new heights with the addition of our SENSORY Sleep Programme, crafted to ensure you wake up fully rested and rejuvenated. The innovative OOLER Sleep System by ChiliSleep helps you regain control of your sleep cycle by allowing you to set your ideal sleep temperature. Gentle temperature adjustments throughout the night, combined with our soothing weighted blanket, promote deep, restorative sleep and help recalibrate your body's natural rhythm.

Don't head into jet lag on autopilot, conquer your recovery and start your stay at Pan Pacific London feeling refreshed and rejuvenated.

To make the most of our comprehensive Flight Mode Recovery treatment and SENSORY Sleep Programme, visit our website or speak to one of our wonderful SENSORY wellbeing floor team to book your experience.

Growing Into Self-Care

DIPPING TINY TOES INTO WELLNESS

Our SENSORY Wellbeing Floor embraces a holistic approach to wellness, catering to guests of all ages. To guide our VIYPs (Very Important Young Persons), on their wellness journey, we have crafted specialised treatments that gently introduce young guests to the world of self-care and relaxation. This thoughtful design not only offers a serene experience but also lays the foundation for a lifelong appreciation of wellness.

The Dreamy Treatment (30 or 60 minutes)

Our signature Dreamy Treatment is a unique face and body treatment that fosters magical moments between parent and child. Side-by-side, both parent and child enjoy a harmonised blend of facial and body treatments tailored to the needs of young skin.

Our expert therapists use soft, nurturing and playful gestures that envelop the senses, ensuring the child's skin is pampered, hydrated and soothed while the body is gently relaxed. This calming treatment offers a beautiful moment of connection and tranquillity.

In addition to our duo treatment, our SENSORY wellbeing floor features two bespoke children's facials, each thoughtfully designed to nurture young skin whilst imparting the importance of self-care:

The Fairy Tale Treatment (30 mins)

This whimsical facial transports children into a world of imagination, where storytelling is intertwined with gentle skincare. Hydrating and replenishing, this treatment is executed to the rhythm of a wonderful fairy tale chosen to accompany each gesture, to spark delight and wonder.

The Awakening to Care (30 mins)

Designed for the curious and conscientious, this facial introduces children to the art of skincare. Guided step-by-step by a beauty expert, young guests learn to care for their skin, ensuring it remains clean, hydrated and soft, all while embracing the rituals of grown-up self-care.

To complete their wellness experience, children are invited to enjoy a soothing cup of Persian Rose tea following their treatment. This gentle floral infusion is renowned for its calming properties, reducing anxiety, easing inflammation and promoting gut health. Persian Rose tea also serves as a powerful antioxidant, protecting the body from harmful free radicals and fostering a lasting sense of peace and serenity.

Our children's treatments are available for bookings, with a parent or guardian present throughout, ensuring safety, comfort and shared experience. We invite families to embark on this unique wellness journey together, where moments of connection, relaxation and care intertwine in perfect harmony.

To book a treatment, visit our website or speak to one of our wonderful SENSORY wellbeing team.

A SLICE OF ITALY IN THE CITY

Experience an epicurean passeggiata through Italy's culinary tradition in the heart of London. A short stroll over the road from the hotel, Eataly offers a sprawling gastronomic paradise for all Italiophiles and invites you to eat, shop and learn with a vibrant blend of restaurants, markets and a cooking school.

A veritable cornucopia of Italian and local produce, their market is a mecca for those who appreciate quality ingredients, providing an unparalleled selection of regional ingredients and artisanal products. From freshly baked bread from a traditional wood-fired oven, an abundant selection of Italian cured meats and cheeses and top quality fruits and vegetables, to an impressive range of over 100 types of air-dried pasta and risotto rice, and the largest selection of boutique, single estate olive oils, the market offers everything you need to bring a touch of la dolce vita to your kitchen.

La Pasticceria features artisanal sweets, chocolates and biscuits rich in regional flavours for those with a sweet tooth, and wine connoisseurs can enjoy one of the largest selections of Italian wines in the UK, with a selection of over 2,000 labels from which to choose.

With a variety of outlets, each restaurant offers a unique slice of Italian cuisine. At Terra, the Italian wood-burning grill, seasonal ingredients are transformed by the depth of flavour that comes with cooking over open flames. Pasta e Pizza serves up wood-fired pizzas and perfect al dente pastas, each bite a testament to Italian heritage. For a more relaxed experience, Central Bar provides a diverse selection of Italian soft drinks, seasonal cocktails and light bites.

Eataly is not just a place to eat and shop space – it's a place to learn about Italian cuisine. La Scuola, the in-house cooking school, offers a variety of classes that cater to all skill levels. Whether you're a novice looking to master the basics of Italian cooking or a seasoned home chef seeking to refine your technique, there's something for everyone. La Scuola also offers interactive cooking classes for kids, making it a fantastic family activity. Children can learn to make their own pizza, pasta and other Italian favourites, fostering a love for cooking and quality ingredients from a young age.

As the festive season approaches, Eataly London transforms into a winter wonderland, bringing the warmth and joy of an Italian Christmas to London. The marketplace is filled with seasonal treats like panettone, pandoro and artisanal chocolates, perfect for gifting or indulging yourself.

Mangiamo! Let's eat, drink, and be merry—Italian style.

BOROUGH MARKET

Any epicurean's trip to London would not be complete without a visit to London's oldest food market. With a rich history spanning over a millennium, the bustling market has evolved into a refined and celebrated food destination and has been the birthplace of numerous celebrated food brands such as Neal's Yard Dairy, Bread Ahead, Brindisa, and Ginger Pig. Set beneath historic railway viaducts, Borough Market has become a showcase for high-quality British and international produce, freshly baked goods, artisanal cheeses, free-range meats, seasonal seafood and much more.

Not only can you shop for top-quality ingredients for your kitchen, visitors will also be hard-pressed to leave Borough Market with an empty stomach, as the sensational array of food stalls tempts your taste buds. With over 100 stalls and stands, there is something to suit everyone – and here are some we recommend you don't miss.

Bread Ahead: A renowned bakery famed for its beautiful sourdough loaves and legendary doughnuts, which have achieved cult status among Londoners. If you aren't sure what to order, we recommend trying the sea-salted caramel and honeycomb.

Kappacasein: Large wheels of raclette are halved and melted under the grill before the bubbling layer of melted nutty cheese is scraped off over new potatoes, cornichons and pickled onions – a heavenly alpine dish that's best enjoyed on a crisp winter's day.

The Black Pig: The signature Honey Truffle Parmesan sandwich is bursting with tender, slow-roasted pork shoulder, paired with honey truffle mayonnaise, fennel apple slaw, and a generous helping of 30-month-aged Parmesan from Reggio Emilia.

Neal's Yard Dairy: A staple at Borough Market since 1979, it's celebrated for its commitment to quality and artisanal craftsmanship, offering a diverse range of exceptional British and Irish cheeses.

Brindisa: A beloved fixture at Borough Market renowned for its quality chorizo and jamón, Brindisa offers a taste of irresistible authentic Spanish charcuterie alongside myriad artisan Spanish products.

The Ginger Pig: A celebrated butcher known for its traditional farming methods and quality meat, The Ginger Pig specialises in premium cuts of pork, beef, and lamb. Acclaimed for its expertly crafted sausages, pies, and scotch eggs, their famous hot sausage rolls are a must.

Richard Haward's Oysters: With a legacy of over 200 years, this stall serves some of the freshest, most succulent oysters in London. Shucked right in front of you, these oysters are a testament to the market's commitment to quality and tradition and are not to be missed.

Just a 15-minute stroll from the hotel, One New Change perfectly blends shopping, dining, leisure and spectacular views of St. Paul's Cathedral beautifully displayed by One New Change's sleek glass design.

Fashion enthusiasts can browse brands like Boss, Mango, Reiss, Cos and Hacket London and more, whilst Townhouse and Ted's Grooming Room provide refined nail salon and Turkish barber experiences. Those shopping for the perfect gift will have plenty to choose from, with brands like Oliver Bonas, Hotel Chocolat and Fraser Hart providing an abundance of options from which to choose.

For a break in your retail therapy, head to F1 Arcade where advanced racing simulators offer an immersive Formula 1 driving experience. Compete with friends or beat your own records while enjoying stunning visuals and realistic sound effects.

Peckish shoppers can find plenty of delicious casual dining options to recharge. From authentic Neapolitan pizzas at Pizza Pilgrims to gourmet burgers at Byron and fresh, vibrant salads at Urban Greens, One New Change has plenty of options for a quick bite.

For a more refined and leisurely post-shopping dining experience, Gordon Ramsay's Bread Street Kitchen offers fantastic British classics, while Ivy Asia delivers a theatrical and Instagram-worthy take on Asian cuisine. Topping off your day, the stunning Madison rooftop bar lets you sip cocktails while soaking in panoramic views of St. Paul's Cathedral — an ideal spot for shoppers to unwind.
