Shopping Districts

CBD

The Central Business District is a compact shopper's paradise. From Perth Station to St Georges Terrace, shoppers can devour the fashion and food offerings in the Hay and Murray Street Malls, centres and arcades. It also has the largest number of retail shops than any other retail precinct around Perth.

NORTHBRIDGE

In Northbridge, visitors will find a mix of vintage, urban culture and quirky giftware stores along William Street, as well as a bustling food and entertainment hub through James, Lake, Aberdeen and William Streets.

MALLS

The Murray and Hay Street Malls run parallel between Barrack and William Streets. All city department stores, city centre arcades and major centres are based in the malls, as well as fashion brands, jewellers, footwear and more.

DEPARTMENT STORES

There are three major department stores located in the city centre: David Jones, Myer and Target. These stores offer a range of affordable and high end fashion, accessories, homewares, electrical appliances, entertainment and giftwares. Target and David Jones are accessible from Hay and Murray Street Malls and Myer is accessible from Murray Street Mall and Forrest Place.

ARCADES AND COURTS

The city has numerous arcades and courts between the malls including the picturesque London Court with its Tudor facade and ornate clockfaces, which continues to be a popular drawcard for visitors and locals alike. Also visit Plaza Arcade, Trinity Arcade and Piccadilly Arcade.

KING STREET

King Street is Perth's most fashionable street with local, national and international fashion designers opening their doors. Lined with heritage buildings, this high end shopping precinct offers a unique shopping experience for locals and tourists alike.

WEST END

The 'West End' centred on the heritage streetscape of King Street is known as the area for shopping sophisticates and adventurers and runs down Murray and Hay Streets between William and Milligan Streets.

CENTRES

The City has a number of centres for you to discover a range of locally designed, national and international brands, family owned, exclusive retailers, vintage clothing and pop up shops.

- » Forrest Chase incorporating City Central runs between Murray Street Mall and Forrest Place. It has a mix of national brands across two levels, Myer department store, Woolworths supermarket and casual dining.
- » Carillon City in between Hay and Murray Street Malls has three levels of retail focusing on jewellery, fashion, kids, and hair and beauty. There are also two food courts.
- » 140 Perth between Murray Street Mall, William and Wellington Streets has a mix of fashion and dining experiences.
- » Wesley Quarter on William Street between Hay and Murray Streets is an outdoor centre with a mix of national and international brands.
